
OLD-TIME RADIO

OLD-TIME RADIO

OLD-TIME RADIO

The Friends of Old Radio and Hello Again, the oldest monthly publication for collectors of old-time radio shows, present their:

SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION

Saturday, October 1st, 1977

Holiday Inn, Meriden, Connecticut

(right off I-91 - East Main St. Exit)

Among the guests of honor scheduled at this time are: writers Noel Gerson, Blair Walliser and Ernest Kinoy; announcers George Ansbro, Fred Foy and Tony Marvin; sound effects artist Ed Blainey; director Warren Somerville; and performers Raymond Edward Johnson (Inner Sanctum), Mandel Kramer (Yours Truly Johnny Dollar, TV - Edge of Night), Vicki Vola (Mr. District Attorney), Peg Lynch (Ethel and Albert), Grace Matthews (The Shadow), Court Benson (Tennessee Jed), and Jackson Beck (Superman).

The Convention begins at 9:00AM with the opening of the display and dealers room (over 30 tables) where radio memorabilia may be purchased, traded or just admired. Visitors may attend a radio quiz show, a question and answer period with the guests, old-time radio related movies and other afternoon events.

In the evening there will be a Cocktail Party and Buffet Dinner. During the evening the special guests will present a live radio program and awards will be given out.

Tickets for the Convention are $13.00 which includes costs for all the events including the buffet dinner. Cost for children under 16 is $10.00. Afternoon participation only is $3.00. Children under 16 is $1.50.

Please indicate how many are coming and if you need a display or dealer table. There is no extra cost for the tables.

Make checks payable to JAY HICKERSON and mail to:

JAY HICKERSON
Box C
Orange, Ct. 06477

For information call New Haven, Ct. (203) 795-6261 or 795-3748
